

ICOM International Observatory on Illicit Traffic in Cultural Goods
22 rue de Palestro
75002 Paris
France

Tel : 0033 (0)1 47 34 05 00
Fax : 0033 (0)1 43 06 78 62
Contact : obs-traffic@icom.museum

Information form

Organisation / Institution

Status ☐ National NGO ☐ Academic / Research institution ☐ Private organisation

Mailing address

Country

Website

Facebook

Twitter

Contact person for ICOM:

Name

Position

Tel

Fax

E-mail

Contact details to be published on the Observatory's Website (if different from the above):

Name

Position

Tel

Fax

E-mail

May we record and publish an interview with some of your staff members?

☐ yes

☐ no

Do you authorise the use of your logo on the Observatory's Website to present your organisation / institution? (please enclose a high resolution version of it)

☐ yes

☐ no

Presentation text of your organisation (this information may be published on the Website): date of creation, areas of action, mission statement, main activities, etc. This presentation should underline your organisation's involvement in the fight against illicit traffic in cultural goods.

List and briefly explain all your organisation's practice(s) and/or tool(s) for the fight against illicit traffic in cultural goods (legal, ethical, practical). This information may be published on the Observatory's Website.

Main resource(s) related to your organisation in the fight against illicit traffic in cultural goods (published and online material, video). These resources may be published on the Observatory's Website.

Other main resource(s) you wish to recommend (published and online material, video).

Please list other organisations / institutions (ministries, law enforcement agencies, NGOs / private bodies, academics, etc.) in your country dedicated to the fight against illicit traffic in cultural goods. Please include their contact details.

Comments, advice and further remarks you may have on the Observatory project.

Do not hesitate to send us any other information or materials (pictures, banners, documents) for inclusion in the Observatory's Website